

DIRECTIVE FOR FUND INVESTMENT

The Flambeau Forever Foundation Fund provides the opportunity to invest in Flambeau students.

There are three areas in which donations are allocated: academics, activities, and athletics. Please identify how you would like your contribution to be invested for the enrichment of our students' education. Please make checks payable to the Flambeau School District, and specify the fund in the memo.

Mission statement

To connect our community and Flambeau students by enriching, educational experiences.

Vision statement

Provide the financial bridge so Flambeau students dream, believe, and achieve their highest potential.

How we operate

All funds donated go into the Foundations investment account in the designated categories (Academic, Activities, Athletics) under guidance of the Rusk County Community Foundation. Earnings on the Principal Ballance that accumulates are used for grants each year. As the Principal grows, so do the grants.

OVER
500 STUDENTS,
OVER 500
REASONS TO CARE!

The Flambeau Forever Foundation Fund was established in 2016 with the purpose of supporting the School District of Flambeau's world-class student learners and citizens of character in a safe and inclusive learning community. Enhancing the opportunities in the areas of academics, activities, and athletics will provide for enriched educational experiences. Community members and organizations that wish to donate can do so by contacting a director or filling out the form in this brochure. The Flambeau students and community thank you for your support! The Flambeau Forever Foundation Fund operates under:

"Each of us can reach one student.
Together we can reach them all."
